GERMANY REFUSES TO SURRENDER KAISER INSOLENCE PERMEATES COUNTER TERMS

SEEK MODERATION OF PRACTICALLY EVERY DEMAND OF ALLIES

TWENTY-FIVE BILLIONS SET AS OUTSIDE INDEMNITY SUM THEY ARE WILLING TO PAY TO THE ALLIES

WANTS MANDATE OVER COLONIES

By CARL D. GROAT

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

BERLIN, May 27, Delayed—The German counter proposal to the peace treaty as made public here today refuses to surrender the Kaiser and demands immediate admission of Germany to the League of Nations with a mandate over her former colonies.

The counter proposals agree to the limitations of the German army to 100,000 men and offer to disarm the large German naval vessels through insisting to retain some of the commercial vessels.

They further insist that no change in German territorial lines be made withou plebiscites in the territory affected.

Germany agrees that Danzig should be a free port with the River Visula on which the Danzig is situated internationalized.

It is asked that the entente be withdrawn from occupied territory within four months.

The counter proposals say that Germany is willing to pay 20 million marks approximately 5 million dollars, by 1926 and will pay a sum annually provided the total does not exceed 100 billion marks or approximately 25 billion dollars.

With regard to the Kaiser and others held responsible by the Allies the counter proposals suggest reciprocal trials of persons accused on both sides.

A reparation commission with a neutral president is proposed to decide specific cases and disputes.

FIUME IGNORED IN AUSTRIAN TREATY

By FRED S. FERGUSON

PARIS, May 28—The question of Fiume and other boundaries affecting the Italians will not be indicated in the peace treaty which will be handed to the Austrian delegates at St. Germain Friday it was learned today.

THOSE SEATS COULD NOT STAND THE JAR

Col John M. Bain and Juveline Probation Officer Leavy have a complaint to make against those ancient Pennsy passenger coaches. In fact they have two separate and distinct complaints, properly speaking.

The gentlemen in question, after securing accident policies at the local station, boarded the relics of the past, and plumped down into a seat. In jolting around the curve at the brewery, the aged springs collapsed, and the two passengers ran together like scrambled eggs.

Conductor Bell tactfully unwound Bain from around Bill and cautiously led the offended gentlemen to another seat which hadn't been busted yet.

The travelers again seated themselves and began their lie-swapping campaign. The decrepit old seat got away with its burden on the straightaway all right, but at the Curve beyond Bigler, with a creak and a smash the dern thing went down amid a shower of dust.

"Two downs" and a gain of less than six miles was entirely too much for the dignity and peace of mind of the tourists and Cnductor Bell was unable to appease their righteous wrath.

He offered other seats, but as the burnt child dreads the fire, our citizens refused to be "ketched" again and rode their shanks into Philipsburg.

LIEUT. C. W. YOST LANDS

Mrs. Charles W. Yost received a telegram yesterday morning announcing the safe arrival at Hoboken. N Y., of her husband, Lieut. C. W. Yost. Yost was with the 314th Regiment of the 79th Division and expects to be mustered out of the service in the next few days. Mrs. Yost expects to join her husband at Baltimore following his release from the service.

THE STEADY PRESSURE.

Men often strain too hard to be brilliant, to be above the average in ability, genius and what not. More men are ruined in what they might do by setting brilliance as their aim, rather than faithfulness to average ability. There are only a few brilliant folk in this world and their lot is not an enviable one. Better, far better, be a man of average intelligence, with the ability to do hard work, to have the genius for staying patiently by the allotted task, the willingness to keep up the steady pressure, says Rockford Republic You will accomplish more that way About the only genius worth taking into account for the average one of us is that capacity for taking pains, for maintaining the steady pressure, that is necessary to anyone who hopes to do well his duty from day to day Forget that you wish to be brilliant. Do the daily round of duty, with some measure of inspiration; do it thoroughly, patiently, finish it. That is the way of success and its achievement. The world's work is done by the average folk, not by brilliant ones.

Newspapers and newspaper men are sometimes accused of failure to practice what they preach, but this can never be said about the people who work on the newspapers of London, England, says Winnipeg Free Press This striking fact in connection with recruiting was mentioned in a recent speech of Sir Auckland Geddes Of 10,000 men and boys employed by London newspaper offices 5,000 joined the colors and at the moment of the armistice being signed there were not thirty men fit for general service in all the London newspaper offices That was a record said Sir Auckland, which placed the press ahead of every trade group in the matter of recruiting.

From all parts of France have come tributes like this. They have fallen as thick as the flowers showered on our passing regiments by the hands of women, little children and all the weaker more helpless ones left in war's brutal wake 'Inborn gentlemen, all of them' Surely that is the cap sheaf of all the laurels our splendid fellows have won' Men they proved themselves in all their contact with those toward whom courteous respect and helping kindness are rights no real man ever yet has failed to honor.

U. S. NAVY FIRST TO CROSS OCEAN BY AIR ROUTE

Commander Reed of The NC-4 Landed In Portugal At 4 O'clock Yesterday

PORTUGAL HONORS THE CREW

LISBON, May 28—The NC 4 expects to finish the hop-off of more than 700 miles from Lisbon to Plymouth, England. This hop will complete the historic air voyage which started from Rockaway Beach, N. Y. Lieut.-Commander A. C. Reed who successfully navigated the air lanes on the way across the sea was out and about today looking over the prospect of getting away for England at once. Much depends on the condition of the weather and the motor. The Portugese government has awarded to Reed, Commander Towers, and Lieut-Commander Bellinger, of the NC 3 and NC 1 respectively, the Order of Commander of the Torrestata, and each member of the crew was made a Chevalier of the same order Admiral Plummer and other naval officials were decorated with the Order of the Adiz. Last night there was a brilliant reception aboard the Rochester. Today was a holiday in honor of the Americans. Reed was very modest over his achievement. The engine functiond perfectly all the way from America to Portugal," he said.

Punta Del Gada, Azores, May 27—America's claim to the honor of the first air flight across the Atlantic is secure. Lieutenant Commander Alfred Read brought his big seaplane NC-4 to a safe landing in Lisbon harbor at 4:02 New York time this afternoon, having made the 800-mile journey from this port in nine hours and 44 minutes, an average of about 800 nautical miles per hour.

NC-4 has now covered 3,150 miles since she left Rockaway for Halifax on May 8 and her time for the actual cross-ocean flight from Trepassy to Lisbon is 26 hours and 46 minutes. The best steamship time across the Atlantic is four days, mace by the Mauretania, on February 20. It may thus be seen that the completion of the flight marks a tremendous advance.

The final leg of the trans-Atlantic flight was made without any untoward incident such as marked the hoodoo-ridden progress of the NC-4 from Rockaway to Halifax and from Halifax to Trepassey. The crew was the same that brought the plane to this port. Weather conditions were ideal. The sun was shining brightly and the sea was smooth.

The start was made at 10:18 a. m. Greenwich time, (6:18 a m. New York time.) ~~It had been planned to~~ get away shortly after daylight, but trouble with one engine held the plane back. Crowds lined every point of vantage along the harbor. The sun made the upper surface of the wings gleam like polished silver as the plane taxed about the harbor, trying out engines and when all was ready, dashed away towards the harbor's mouth at tremendous speed and soared into the air like a great bird. Then with propellers whirling the big flying boat sped upwards until she reached the desired flying elevation and soon had disappeared from sight of the cheering thousands.

As the plane passed station ship No. 1 Lieutenant Commander Reed sent a wireless to Rear Admiral Jackson, reading:

"We seem to be on our way. Many thanks for your hospitality."

From then on to the finish the wireless brought regular reports of the plane's progress over the patrol ships, until No. 14, the last of the line was reached and passed. The plane was then only a hundred miles from the mouth of the Tagus. Then came the report that a safe landing had been made at 2.02 Greenwich time (4-02 p. m. New York time).

The flyers on their arrival at Lisbon, according to the advices received by Captain Wortman here, received a most enthusiastic welcome. They were formally received on board the U .S S. Rochester by the President and other Portugese dignitaries. The City was en fete in their honor.

There were many heart burnings among the crews of the NC-1 and NC-3 over their inability to share in the glory of making the final jump of the cross-ocean flight. Their disappointment was assuaged in some measure, however, by the fact that they had been transferred to Lisbon in time to see the completion of the great feat.

A suggestion that Commander Powers, who had been in charge of the flight, until his plane, NC-3 was disabled, should be permitted to accompany Lieutenant-Commander Reed on the final leg of the trip, was overruled by Secretary of the Navy Daniels.

It is understood here that if the weather is favorable tomorrow, NC-4 will resume the flight to Plymouth a jump of 775 nautical miles

Daniels Congratulates Flyers.

Washington, May 2?—The Atlantic ocean has been spanned through the air and to the American Navy falls the honor and glory

This achievement was written into history at 4·02 this afternoon when the naval seaplane, the NC-4 in command of Lieutenant-Commander Reed landed at Lisbon. from Ponta del Gada, completing the last lap of the flight from Trepassey.

Immediately upon the receipt of the news of the arrival of the NC-4 at Lisbon, Secretary Daniels cabled the following to President Wilson:

"The first flight across the Atlantic has been made by the American navy and I know the fact will rejoice your heart."

Mr .Daniels followed this message with a cable to Commander Reed which read:

"The entire navy congratulates you and your felow-aviators on your epochal flight. The ocean has been spanned through the air and to the American navy goes the honor of making the first trans-Atlantic flight. We are all intensely proud of your achievement and thankful that it has been accomplished without mishap to any of the daring aviators. To all of them and to you all honor is due."

AMERICA'S IMMORTALS

EDWARD C. ALLWORTH,
Captain, 60th Infantry.

Capt. Allworth won the Distinguished Service Cross for bravery in action at Clery-le-Petit, France, November 5, 1918. While his company was crossing the Meuse river and canal at a bridgehead opposite Clery-le-Petit, the bridge over the canal was destroyed by shell fire and Capt. Allworth's command became separated, part of it being on the east bank of the canal and the remainder on the west bank. Seeing his advance units making slow headway up the steep slope ahead, this officer mounted the canal bank and called for his men to follow. Plunging in he swam across the canal under fire from the enemy, followed by his men. Inspiring his men by his example of gallantry, he led them up the slope, joining the hard-pressed platoons in front. By his personal leadership he forced the enemy back for more than a kilometer, overcoming machine gun nests and capturing a hundred prisoners, whose number exceeded that of the men in his command. The exceptional courage and leadership displayed by Capt. Allworth made possible the re-establishment of a bridgehead over the canal and the successful advance of other troops. Capt. Allworth's home is at Crawford, Washington.

STRIKE GAS WELL IN BOROUGH OF PUNXSUTAWNEY

PUNXSUTAWNEY, May 27 —A gas well, showing an initial test of 208,000 cubic feet in 24 hours, has been drilled within the borough limits of Punxsutawney and the "find" doubtless presages much drilling upon the part of the company that brought in this well, the T. W. Philips Gas and Oil company and other concerns that have secured leases in the immediate vicinity.

The drilling started several weeks ago, when Jacob Haag, Jos Baumgardner, E. Stigefi of this place, and H. G. Schlemmer, of Rural Valley, organized a company to make a wild cat test of the territory for gas and oil. The well is on the Clarence Weber farm on Greenwood avenue and within the borough limits.

Saturday the drillers encountered 15 feet of gas sand at a depth of 1365 feet. A test gauge was immediately placed and within the next 24 hours a flow of 208,000 cubic feet was shown. Since the test was made it is thought that the flow has increased to a consideralbe degree.

NAVY OFFICIALS WANT COMPLETION OF ORIGINAL THREE YEAR PROGRAM

By L. C. MARTIN

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, May 28—Immediate completion of the three year naval program authorized by Congress in 1916 has been recommended by the general board of the navy, Secretary Daniels told the House Naval Affairs committee today.

This program includes 4 battle ships and 6 battle cruisers, work of which was held up by the necessity of building smaller craft during the war.

Democrats Prepare For 1920 Campaign

Chicago, May 28—United Press—Democratic committeemen today went over their gear and tackle in preparation for the 1920 campaign.

The national committee, according to members here today, will devote itself to perfecting its organization and building plans for better knit state organizations.

For the first time in its history, the democratic party was to permit a woman to take part in a big powwow. Several women expecting a place on the national committee through proxies. But aside from this hope there was a very real Woman's Associate national committee in session. Presided over by Mrs. George Bass, Illinois, this committee was expected to devise plans for rounding up the rapidly increasing woman vote of the country. Members of state organizations attended the committee meeting to hear discussions of feminine politics scheduled for delivery by Mrs. Alexander Thompson, Oregon; Mrs. John S. Crosby, New York; Mrs. Henry Sherlock, Montana; Mrs. Bettie White, Arizona, Mrs. W. R. Pattangall, Maine; Mrs. Gertrude A. Lee, California and Miss Mary Foy, California. The women were to banquet tonight, Mrs. Bass presiding over the dinner. Bainbridge Colb yand Chairman Homer S. Cummings, democratic chairman, were among the speakers listed. Several women speakers were to report suffrage conditions from the north, east, south and west.

Two cabinet members, Attorney General Palmer, and Secretary of the Treasury Glass, were slated for prominent places in discussions of the national committee. Both are committeemen from their home states, Pennsylvania and Virginia, respectively.

The program for today and tomorrow was a business-like looking affair calling for the customary reports of officers. These were to be followed by reports from [illegible] concluding with a [illegible] on such topics as "Organization work," "Use of a Speaker's Bureau" and "Practical Publicity."

The only scheduled social event for the committeemen is the banquet set for tomorrow night.

SPEAKING OF SELF-DETERMINATION

An interesting suggestion comes from Chicago touching the liquidation of Europe's indebtedness—some $10,000,000,000—to the United States. It is that this country take Canada in payment, and it is reported that some influential Canadians are favorable to the idea. Maybe so, but if the people of Canada objected there could be no annexation, no matter how expedient it might be in relieving the mother country of an embarrassing load of pecuniary obligations to us and, possibly, giving Great Britain increased economic and political advantage in Europe. That thought is met by the statement, the authority for which is not given, that "if Canada had a plebiscite it would become a portion of the United States." There is no occasion for excitement over the possibilities. It is interesting, however to consider the subject of annexation from another angle.

Suppose Canada did vote for its incorporation in the United States of America and Great Britain objected to losing the great Dominion. The principle of self-determinaton of peoples," enunciated in one of the famous Fourteen Points, would seem to support the Canadians in carrying out their project. But another principle, laid down in the league of nations covenant, to the effect that territorial integrity of any country shall be inviolate, would seem to warrant Britain in taking measures to prevent the severance if it was not agreeable to her. The question is not likely to be seriously raised as regards Canada, but "self- determination" already has been given a black eye in the treaty provision that requires Germany to acknowledge and respect the independence of German Austria. The purpose apparently is to prevent the German Austrians from carrying out any desire they may have to unite with what is left of the German Empire. It that is confirmed, we may wonder if Canada ever could join the United States of its people's own volition.—Gazette Times.

DESIGNING COSTUMES TO BE WORN AT METHODIST CENTENARY CELEBRATION

DESIGNS for thousands of costumes to be used in the pageants and life plays of the Methodist Centenary Celebration at Columbus, O., June 20 to July 13, are being prepared by Livingston Platt, the noted costume and scenic designer of New York, who has taken the big job of costuming appropriately all participants in the big exposition. Mr. Platt's designs range from the garb of the ancient Babylonians and their Jewish captives, worn in the first episode of the big pageant "The Wayfarer," to the more modern dress of Belgian refugees in the war front scene.

Seventy thousand yards of material have been ordered for the costumes used in the Centenary Celebration which marks in a spectacular and impressive manner the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of the Methodist missions.

Mr. Platt has made research work for weeks through authentic pictorial records of costumes, ancient and modern. In addition to the costumes of Biblical times, he has limned plates plates of Japanese, Chinese and Hindoo garb.

FARM BUREAU BULLETIN ON TRACTOR LAW

Senate Bill No. 796, forbidding the moving of traction engines with cleats over improved highways and bridges, and the clumsy attempt to amend this ridiculous peace of legislation, as proposing to exempt from the act such agricultural implements as grass mowers, binders, manure spreaders, etc., show the lack of an intelligent understanding on the part of the Highway Department of what equipment is essential for the successful operation of farm machinery. A very limited knowledge of the subject would tell that if cleats are necessary on horse drawn farm implments, and if chains are necessary on automobiles and trucks, the use of the standard cleat is absolutely essential to the traction engine in order to move the threshing machine required to thresh approximately 75,000,000 bushels of grain raised in the State each year.

After a hard fight by the Pennsylvania Thresherman's and Farmers' Protective Association, the bill was put in the hands of the Road Committee and they now propose to amend the bill so as to allow traction engines on the improved roads and bridges, providing they have cleats one inch wide at face on point of contact with the road.

The manufacturers have agreed to equip engines built for 1920 with the 1-inch cleats but as the exemption from the provision of the act for engines are now in use, if the threshermen would be compelled to change their cleats at the present high cost of material and labor it would cost them from $125 to $140. A great majority of them through the State say they will quit before they will do this. If they should change their minds and change the cleats it would mean that they would have to change their price for threshing.

This bill has a direct bearing on the threshing problems of every farmer in the County and should be sufficient reason for the farmers to arise in arms and write to their Senators and Representatives asking them to defeat this bill if possible. However, the time is near when the bill will be passed on, and immediate action is necessary for any good to be done.

GEORGE G. M'MURTRY,
Captain, 308th Infantry.

Captain McMurtry received the Distinguished Service Cross for conspicuous gallantry in action at Charlevaus, in the Forest d'Argonne, France, October 2 to 8, 1918. Captain McMurtry commanded a battalion which was cut off and surrounded by the enemy and, although wounded in the knee by shrapnel on October 4, and suffering great pain, continued throughout the entire period to encourage his officers and men with a resistless optimism that contributed largely toward preventing panic and disorder among the troops who were without food, cut off from communication with our lines. October 4, during a heavy barrage, he personally directed and supervised the moving of the wounded to shelter before he himself sought shelter. October 6 he was wounded in the shoulder by a German grenade, but continued personally to organize and direct the defense against the German attack on the position until the attack was defeated. He continued to direct and command his troops, refusing relief, and personally led his men out of the position after assistance arrived, before permitting himself to be taken to the hospital October 8. During this period the successful defense of the position was due largely to his efforts. His wife is at 22 East 70th street, New York.

OBITUARY

SIMON EDWARD MICHAELS.

The residents of Karthaus township were very much shocked when they learned of the sudden death of Edward Michaels of Pottrsdale. He was in the employ of the New York Central Railroad and was struck by the work train at Cataract Thursday morning, May 15, 1919, and instantly killed.

Simon Edward Michaels was born in Karthaus twnship October 31, 1859 He was the son of John Michaels. He received his education in the Common Schools of Karthaus township.

He was united in marriage with Mary E. Hunter, October 25, 1886. They went to housekeeping in Pottersdale, and they spent their entire married life there, with the exception of a year and a half, they lived in Philipsburg.

Mr. Michaels was a miner by trade, and was thoroughly industrious. He performed his part of the world's work to the best of his ability, and is now enjoying a well-earned rest in Heaven.

He was a good citizen. He was of real value to the community, where he lived and will be much missed on every side.

He was a good neighbor and friend. His character was of a high type and like his Saviour he went about doing good. The helpful life is the one that is missed,, when it passes out.

He was a faithful follower of the Meek and Lowly Jesus. It was no trouble for the world to see that he was a Christian. He was a loyal member of the Pottersdale Methodist church, and as long as he was able, he was active in the work of the church. He served acceptably as Sunday school superintendent for a number of years, and was also steward.

But he will be most missed in the home. Mr. and Mrs. Michael had had thirty-two years of beautiful married life. They were a devoted couple and lived for each other. Their home was a Christian home, and Jesus Christ was a most welcome guest there.

Mrs. Michaels has been an invalid for the last five years and her husband's devotion was intense. He took the best of care of her. It would seem that he was taken from her, just when she needed him most. Mrs. Michaels has the sympathy of the community in her affliction.

He is survived by his wife and the following brothers and sister: Walter Michaels, Youngstown, Ohio; Samuel Michaels, Karthaus; Frank Michaels, Pottersdale; Plummer Michaels, Surveyor; and Mrs. J. S. Maurer, Philipsburg.

The funeral was held Sunday morning, May 18. 1919 at ten o'clock from the Oak Hill Lutheran church. Rev. John P. McCurdy officiating. nterment in Oak Hill cemetery.

Every patron of the school should make it a point to see these displays. Drop in and see what your boys and girls are doing at high school.

COURT NOTES.

Miller and Hartswick filed a petition in the Prothenotary's office yesterday in which Mrs. Eva Schreck seeks to secure a divorce from Al Schreck, whom she married Sept. 21, 1906. Al deserted her in 1916, and, otherwise conducted himself as no decent, up-right Cooper Township husband should. Mrs. ——— Curry is blamed with being more friendly with the recreant husband than the Pennsylvania statutes provide for or condone

Smith and Smith made a similar application for Jennie Pendleton, who seeks to be rid in fact as well as name of her former lord and master, James E. Pendleton. The Pendletons were married November 24, 1910, but the wife, who lives at Helvetia, says life with him was like the first syllable of her home town, and the agony was over when Pendelton deserted her in April, 1916.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

Mr. Rosenberger, whose home is in Punxsutawney, arrived in Curwensville yesterday and assumed the management of the Bickford Store company vice W. H. Woodside, resigned.

Chester Smith, employed at the soft clay mines had his left hand caught under a motor yesterday and three fingers were badly crushed.

Harry McNaul, of Birmingham Ala., accompanied by a friend, arrives in town yesterday. They will fish our mountain streams for a few days and thence proceed to Potter and Elk Counties, to finish their fishing excursion.

Carpenters are putting the finishing touches on the woodwork of the new porch in front of the property purchased by Orlie Norris from the Arnold estate.

S. Dorsey Griffith, a former owner of the Park house, now located at Pittsburgh, was a Curwensville visitor yesterday.

V. H. Bloom, assistant postmaster who represented Bethesda lodge 821, I. O. O. F. at the grand lodge held in Johnstown last week returned home bringing a very flattering report with him. He says it rained every day during the week, but the meetings were interesting enough to hold the delegates inside during the sessions.

Charles Eckbert a former C-boy, accompanied by his mother Mrs. H. J. Eckbert were in town yesterday. Mr. Eckbert is a druggist at Kittanning.

A game of baseball will be played on Memorial Day. Afer all the services are finished on athletic grounds, between the home team and the State College H. S.

On May 31st Curwensville citizens will make a drive to raise a large sum of money for the Salvation Army fund. Subscriptions to the fund will be asked for as well as liberal donations.

There has not in the world's history been so splendid a testimonial of a nation's gratitude as the United States has paid to its citizen soldiers; but it has not measured up to their deserts The last and most impressive of all tributes is that which comes from the heart bespoken by the faltering voice, the moistening eye, the quickening pulse. It is the human testimony to the fact that as a nation we have not forgot—the pledge on this privileged day of a glorious anniversary, that we will never forget—the promise that the future shall bring forth sons and daughters capable and willing to sustain with equal sacrifices the structure of human liberty and national security that these veterans raised. Looking upon the spectacle, the nation will be moved to renew its assurance that, after all, these things in this world worth fighting for, even dying for, that there are worse fates than to give one's life for a cause worthy the giving. There will be a new and resolute determination that if need shall come, as come it may, this nation will rise to its obligation and its duty, inspired by the example of the men who preserve for us the institutions tha have been made sacred by their sacrifices.

FOLKS are a heap like tobacco. Thar's hot-headed, bitey folks. Thar's flat, uninterestin' folks. An' then thar's folks like Velvet—mild, but hearty an' fren'ly, too.

Velvet

THE FRIENDLY TOBACCO

"Friendly" is a very good word to describe the positively pleasing quality that sets VELVET tobacco apart.

There is that indescribable something about VELVET that is associated in men's minds with the thought of a friend.

It is a satisfying smoke—never harsh; without a bite. Like a friend it "agrees" with you no matter how much you use it.

Long, patient ageing—in wooden hogsheads—does it. Friendship must ripen slowly. Good tobacco the same way. An army of men have learned this through VELVET.

Today is a good time to get a lot of comfort out of a pipeful of friendly VELVET.

Nothing can be good for everything.

Doing one thing well brings success.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for one thing only.

For weak or disordered kidneys.

Here is Clearfield evidence to prove their worth.

Glenn Wilson, 417 W. Front St., says: "I suffered from kidney trouble and a pain in the small of my back. My back also ached constantly. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills and after using one box I noticed the pain was not so steady and before long the pain entirely disappeared. I have never been troubled with my kidneys since and I am glad to recommend Doan's.

SEEK MODERATION OF PRACTICALLY EVERY DEMAND OF ALLIES

TWENTY-FIVE BILLIONS SET AS OUTSIDE INDEMNITY SUM THEY ARE WILLING TO PAY TO THE ALLIES

WANTS MANDATE OVER COLONIES

By CARL D. GROAT

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

BERLIN, May 27, Delayed—The German counter proposal to the peace treaty as made public here today refuses to surrender the Kaiser and demands immediate admission of Germany to the League of Nations with a mandate over her former colonies.

The counter proposals agree to the limitations of the German army to 100,000 men and offer to disarm the large German naval vessels through insisting to retain some of the commercial vessels.

They further insist that no change in German territorial lines be made withou plebiscites in the territory affected.

Germany agrees that Danzig should be a free port with the River Visula on which the Danzig is situated internationalized.

It is asked that the entente be withdrawn from occupied territory within four months.

The counter proposals say that Germany is willing to pay 20 million marks approximately 5 million dollars, by 1926 and will pay a sum annually provided the total does not exceed 100 billion marks or approximately 25 billion dollars.

With regard to the Kaiser and others held responsible by the Allies the counter proposals suggest reciprocal trials of persons accused on both sides.

A reparation commission with a neutral president is proposed to decide specific cases and disputes.

THOSE SEATS COULD NOT STAND THE JAR

Col John M. Bain and Juveline Probation Officer Leavy have a complaint to make against those ancient Pennsy passenger coaches. In fact they have two separate and distinct complaints, properly speaking.

The gentlemen in question, after securing accident policies at the local station, boarded the relics of the past, and plumped down into a seat. In jolting around the curve at the brewery, the aged springs collapsed, and the two passengers ran together like scrambled eggs.

Conductor Bell tactfully unwound Bain from around Bill and cautiously led the offended gentlemen to another seat which hadn't been busted yet.

The travelers again seated themselves and began their lie-swapping campaign. The decrepit old seat got away with its burden on the straightaway all right, but at the Curve beyond Bigler, with a creak and a smash the dern thing went down amid a shower of dust.

"Two downs" and a gain of less than six miles was entirely too much for the dignity and peace of mind of the tourists and Cnductor Bell was unable to appease their righteous wrath.

He offered other seats, but as the burnt child dreads the fire, our citizens refused to be "ketched" again and rode their shanks into Philipsburg.

LIEUT. C. W. YOST LANDS

Mrs. Charles W. Yost received a telegram yesterday morning announcing the safe arrival at Hoboken. N Y., of her husband, Lieut. C. W. Yost. Yost was with the 314th Regiment of the 79th Division and expects to be mustered out of the service in the next few days. Mrs. Yost expects to join her husband at Baltimore following his release from the service.

THE STEADY PRESSURE.

Men often strain too hard to be brilliant, to be above the average in ability, genius and what not. More men are ruined in what they might do by setting brilliance as their aim, rather than faithfulness to average ability. There are only a few brilliant folk in this world and their lot is not an enviable one. Better, far better, be a man of average intelligence, with the ability to do hard work, to have the genius for staying patiently by the allotted task, the willingness to keep up the steady pressure, says Rockford Republic You will accomplish more that way About the only genius worth taking into account for the average one of us is that capacity for taking pains, for maintaining the steady pressure, that is necessary to anyone who hopes to do well his duty from day to day Forget that you wish to be brilliant. Do the daily round of duty, with some measure of inspiration; do it thoroughly, patiently, finish it. That is the way of success and its achievement. The world's work is done by the average folk, not by brilliant ones.

Newspapers and newspaper men are sometimes accused of failure to practice what they preach, but this can never be said about the people who work on the newspapers of London, England, says Winnipeg Free Press This striking fact in connection with recruiting was mentioned in a recent speech of Sir Auckland Geddes Of 10,000 men and boys employed by London newspaper offices 5,000 joined the colors and at the moment of the armistice being signed there were not thirty men fit for general service in all the London newspaper offices That was a record said Sir Auckland, which placed the press ahead of every trade group in the matter of recruiting.

From all parts of France have come tributes like this. They have fallen as thick as the flowers showered on our passing regiments by the hands of women, little children and all the weaker more helpless ones left in war's brutal wake "Inborn gentlemen, all of them." Surely that is the cap sheaf of all the laurels our splendid fellows have won! Men they proved themselves in all their contact with those toward whom courteous respect and helping kindness are rights no real man ever yet has failed to honor.

U. S. NAVY FIRST TO CROSS OCEAN BY AIR ROUTE

Commander Reed of The NC-4 Landed In Portugal At 4 O'clock Yesterday

PORTUGAL HONORS THE CREW

LISBON, May 28—The NC 4 expects to finish the hop off of more than 700 miles from Lisbon to Plymouth, England. This hop will complete the historic air voyage which started from Rockaway Beach, N. Y. Lieut.-Commander A. C. Reed who successfully navigated the air lanes on the way across the sea was out and about today looking over the prospect of getting away for England at once. Much depends on the condition of the weather and the motor. The Portugese government has awarded to Reed, Commander Towers, and Lieut-Commander Bellinger, of the NC 3 and NC 1 respectively, the Order of Commander of the Torrestata, and each member of the crew was made a Chevalier of the same order Admiral Plummer and other naval officials were decorated with the Order of the Adiz. Last night there was a brilliant reception aboard the Rochester. Today was a holiday in honor of the Americans. Reed was very modest over his achievement. The engine functioned perfectly all the way from America to Portugal," he said.

Punta Del Gada, Azores, May 27—America's claim to the honor of the first air flight across the Atlantic is secure. Lieutenant Commander Alfred Read brought his big seaplane NC-4 to a safe landing in Lisbon harbor at 4:02 New York time this afternoon, having made the 800-mile journey from this port in nine hours and 44 minutes, an average of about 800 nautical miles per hour.

NC-4 has now covered 3,150 miles since she left Rockaway for Halifax on May 8 and her time for the actual cross-ocean flight from Trepassy to Lisbon is 26 hours and 46 minutes. The best steamship time across the Atlantic is four days, made by the Mauretania, on February 20. It may thus be seen that the completion of the flight marks a tremendous advance.

The final leg of the trans-Atlantic flight was made without any untoward incident such as marked the hoodoo-ridden progress of the NC-4 from Rockaway to Halifax and from Halifax to Trepassey. The crew was the same that brought the plane to this port. Weather conditions were ideal. The sun was shining brightly and the sea was smooth.

The start was made at 10:18 a. m. Greenwich time, (6:18 a m. New York time.) ~~It had been planned to~~ get away shortly after daylight, but trouble with one engine held the plane back. Crowds lined every point of vantage along the harbor. The sun made the upper surface of the wings gleam like polished silver as the plane taxed about the harbor, trying out engines and when all was ready, dashed away towards the harbor's mouth at tremendous speed and soared into the air like a great bird. Then with propellers whirling the big flying boat sped upwards until she reached the desired flying elevation and soon had disappeared from sight of the cheering thousands.

As the plane passed station ship No. 1 Lieutenant Commander Reed sent a wireless to Rear Admiral Jackson, reading:

"We seem to be on our way. Many thanks for your hospitality."

From then on to the finish the wireless brought regular reports of the plane's progress over the patrol ships, until No. 14, the last of the line was reached and passed. The plane was then only a hundred miles from the mouth of the Tagus. Then came the report that a safe landing had been made at 2.02 Greenwich time (4-02 p. m. New York time).

The flyers on their arrival at Lisbon, according to the advices received by Captain Wortman here, received a most enthusiastic welcome. They were formally received on board the U. S. S. Rochester by the President and other Portugese dignitaries. The City was en fete in their honor.

There were many heart burnings among the crews of the NC-1 and NC-3 over their inability to share in the glory of making the final jump of the cross-ocean flight. Their disappointment was assuaged in some measure, however, by the fact that they had been transferred to Lisbon in time to see the completion of the great feat.

A suggestion that Commander Powers, who had been in charge of the flight, until his plane, NC-3 was disabled, should be permitted to accompany Lieutenant-Commander Reed on the final leg of the trip, was overruled by Secretary of the Navy Daniels.

It is understood here that if the weather is favorable tomorrow, NC-4 will resume the flight to Plymouth a jump of 775 nautical miles

Daniels Congratulates Flyers.

Washington, May 2?—The Atlantic ocean has been spanned through the air and to the American Navy falls the honor and glory

This achievement was written into history at 4:02 this afternoon when the naval seaplane, the NC-4 in command of Lieutenant-Commander Reed landed at Lisbon, from Ponta del Gada, completing the last lap of the flight from Trepassey.

Immediately upon the receipt of the news of the arrival of the NC-4 at Lisbon, Secretary Daniels cabled the following to President Wilson:

"The first flight across the Atlantic has been made by the American navy and I know the fact will rejoice your heart."

Mr .Daniels followed this message with a cable to Commander Reed which read:

"The entire navy congratulates you and your felow-aviators on your epochal flight. The ocean has been spanned through the air and to the American navy goes the honor of making the first trans-Atlantic flight. We are all intensely proud of your achievement and thankful that it has been accomplished without mishap to any of the daring aviators. To all of them and to you all honor is due."

AMERICA'S IMMORTALS

EDWARD C. ALLWORTH, Captain, 60th Infantry.

Capt. Allworth won the Distinguished Service Cross for bravery in action at Clery-le-Petit, France, November 5, 1918. While his company was crossing the Meuse river and canal at a bridgehead opposite Clery-le-Petit, the bridge over the canal was destroyed by shell fire and Capt. Allworth's command became separated, part of it being on the east bank of the canal and the remainder on the west bank. Seeing his advance units making slow headway up the steep slope ahead, this officer mounted the canal bank and called for his men to follow. Plunging in he swam across the canal under fire from the enemy, followed by his men. Inspiring his men by his example of gallantry, he led them up the slope, joining the hard-pressed platoons in front. By his personal leadership he forced the enemy back for more than a kilometer, overcoming machine gun nests and capturing a hundred prisoners, whose number exceeded that of the men in his command. The exceptional courage and leadership displayed by Capt. Allworth made possible the re-establishment of a bridgehead over the canal and the successful advance of other troops. Capt. Allworth's home is at Crawford, Washington.

STRIKE GAS WELL IN BOROUGH OF PUNXSUTAWNEY

PUNXSUTAWNEY, May 27 —A gas well, showing an initial test of 208,000 cubic feet in 24 hours, has been drilled within the borough limits of Punxsutawney and the "find" doubtless presages much drilling upon the part of the company that brought in this well, the T. W. Philips Gas and Oil company and other concerns that have secured leases in the immediate vicinity.

The drilling started several weeks ago, when Jacob Haag, Jos Baumgardner, E. Stigefi of this place, and H. G. Schlemmer, of Rural Valley, organized a company to make a wild cat test of the territory for gas and oil. The well is on the Clarence Weber farm on Greenwood avenue and within the borough limits.

Saturday the drillers encountered 15 feet of gas sand at a depth of 1365 feet. A test gauge was immediately placed and within the next 24 hours a flow of 208,000 cubic feet was shown. Since the test was made it is thought that the flow has increased to a consideralbe degree.

NAVY OFFICIALS WANT COMPLETION OF ORIGINAL THREE YEAR PROGRAM

By L. C. MARTIN

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, May 28—Immediate completion of the three year naval program authorized by Congress in 1916 has been recommended by the general board of the navy, Secretary Daniels told the House Naval Affairs committee today.

This program includes 4 battle ships and 6 battle cruisers, work of which was held up by the necessity of building smaller craft during the war.

Democrats Prepare For 1920 Campaign

Chicago, May 28—United Press—Democratic committeemen today went over their gear and tackle in preparation for the 1920 campaign.

The national committee, according to members here today, will devote itself to perfecting its organization and building plans for better knit state organizations.

For the first time in its history, the democratic party was to permit a woman to take part in a big powwow. Several women expecting a place on the national committee through proxies. But aside from this hope there was a very real Woman's Associate national committee in session. Presided over by Mrs. George Bass, Illinois, this committee was expected to devise plans for rounding up the rapidly increasing woman vote of the country. Members of state organizations attended the committee meeting to hear discussions of feminine politics scheduled for delivery by Mrs. Alexander Thompson, Oregon; Mrs. John S. Crosby, New York; Mrs. Henry Sherlock, Montana; Mrs. Bettie White, Arizona, Mrs. W. R. Pattangall, Maine; Mrs. Gertrude A. Lee, California and Miss Mary Foy, California. The women were to banquet tonight, Mrs. Bass presiding over the dinner. Bainbridge Colb yand Chairman Homer S. Cummings, democratic chairman, were among the speakers listed. Several women speakers were to report suffrage conditions from the north, east, south and west.

Two cabinet members, Attorney General Palmer, and Secretary of the Treasury Glass, were slated for prominent places in discussions of the national committee. Both are committeemen from their home states, Pennsylvania and Virginia, respectively.

The program for today and tomorrow was a business-like looking affair calling for the customary reports of officers. These were to be followed by reports from [illegible], concluding with a [illegible] on such topics as "Organization work," "Use of a Speaker's Bureau" and "Practical Publicity."

The only scheduled social event for the committeemen is the banquet set for tomorrow night.

SPEAKING OF SELF-DETERMINATION

An interesting suggestion comes from Chicago touching the liquidation of Europe's indebtedness—some $10,000,000,000—to the United States. It is that this country take Canada in payment, and it is reported that some influential Canadians are favorable to the idea. Maybe so, but if the people of Canada objected there could be no annexation, no matter how expedient it might be in relieving the mother country of an embarrassing load of pecuniary obligations to us and, possibly, giving Great Britain increased economic and political advantage in Europe. That thought is met by the statement, the authority for which is not given, that "if Canada had a plebiscite it would become a portion of the United States." There is no occasion for excitement over the possibilities. It is interesting, however to consider the subject of annexation from another angle.

Suppose Canada did vote for its incorporation in the United States of America and Great Britain objected to losing the great Dominion. The principle of self-determinaton of peoples," enunciated in one of the famous Fourteen Points, would seem to support the Canadians in carrying out their project. But another principle, laid down in the league of nations covenant, to the effect that territorial integrity of any country shall be inviolate, would seem to warrant Britain in taking measures to prevent the severance if it was not agreeable to her. The question is not likely to be seriously raised as regards Canada, but "self- determination" already has been given a black eye in the treaty provision that requires Germany to acknowledge and respect the independence of German Austria. The purpose apparently is to prevent the German Austrians from carrying out any desire they may have to unite with what is left of the German Empire. It that is confirmed, we may wonder if Canada ever could join the United States of its people's own volition.—Gazette Times.

DESIGNING COSTUMES TO BE WORN AT METHODIST CFNTENARY CELEBRATION

DESIGNS for thousands of costumes to be used in the pageants and life plays of the Methodist Centenary Celebration at Columbus, O., June 20 to July 13, are being prepared by Livingston Platt, the noted costume and scenic designer of New York, who has taken the big job of costuming appropriately all participants in the big exposition. Mr. Platt's designs range from the garb of the ancient Babylonians and their Jewish captives, worn in the first episode of the big pageant "The Wayfarer," to the more modern dress of Belgian refugees in the war front scene.

Seventy thousand yards of material have been ordered for the costumes used in the Centenary Celebration which marks in a spectacular and impressive manner the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of the Methodist missions.

Mr. Platt has made research work for weeks through authentic pictorial records of costumes, ancient and modern. In addition to the costumes of Biblical times, he has limned plates plates of Japanese, Chinese and Hindoo garb.

FARM BUREAU BULLETIN ON TRACTOR LAW

Senate Bill No. 796, forbidding the moving of traction engines with cleats over improved highways and bridges, and the clumsy attempt to amend this ridiculous peace of legislation, as proposing to exempt from the act such agricultural implements as grass mowers, binders, manure spreaders, etc., show the lack of an intelligent understanding on the part of the Highway Department of what equipment is essential for the successful operation of farm machinery. A very limited knowledge of the subject would tell that if cleats are necessary on horse drawn farm implments, and if chains are necessary on automobiles and trucks, the use of the standard cleat is absolutely essential to the traction engine in order to move the threshing machine required to thresh approximately 75,000,000 bushels of grain raised in the State each year.

After a hard fight by the Pennsylvania Thresherman's and Farmers' Protective Association, the bill was put in the hands of the Road Committee and they now propose to amend the bill so as to allow traction engines on the improved roads and bridges, providing they have cleats one inch wide at face on point of contact with the road.

The manufacturers have agreed to equip engines built for 1920 with the 1-inch cleats but as the exemption from the provision of the act for engines are now in use, if the threshermen would be compelled to change their cleats at the present high cost of material and labor it would cost them from $125 to $140. A great majority of them through the State say they will quit before they will do this. If they should change their minds and change the cleats it would mean that they would have to change their price for threshing.

This bill has a direct bearing on the threshing problems of every farmer in the County and should be sufficient reason for the farmers to arise in arms and write to their Senators and Representatives asking them to defeat this bill if possible. However, the time is near when the bill will be passed on, and immediate action is necessary for any good to be done.

AMERICA'S IMMORTALS

GEORGE G. M'MURTRY,
Captain, 308th Infantry.

Captain McMurtry received the Distinguished Service Cross for conspicuous gallantry in action at Charlevans, in the Forest d'Argonne, France, October 2 to 8, 1918. Captain McMurtry commanded a battalion which was cut off and surrounded by the enemy and, although wounded in the knee by shrapnel on October 4, and suffering great pain, continued throughout the entire period to encourage his officers and men with a resistless optimism that contributed largely toward preventing panic and disorder among the troops who were without food, cut off from communication with our lines. October 4, during a heavy barrage, he personally directed and supervised the moving of the wounded to shelter before he himself sought shelter. October 6 he was wounded in the shoulder by a German grenade, but continued personally to organize and direct the defense against the German attack on the position until the attack was defeated. He continued to direct and command his troops, refusing relief, and personally led his men out of the position after assistance arrived, before permitting himself to be taken to the hospital October 8. During this period the successful defense of the position was due largely to his efforts. His wife is at 22 East 70th street, New York.

Helen Hyde, whose death at Pasadena has been announced, was one of the few women in the world who made Japanese color prints.

The only important peace treaty ever negotiated by women was that known as the "Ladies' Peace," arranged by Louise of Savoy and Margaret of Austria.

OBITUARY

SIMON EDWARD MICHAELS.

The residents of Karthaus township were very much shocked when they learned of the sudden death of Edward Michaels of Pottrsdale. He was in the employ of the New York Central Railroad and was struck b the work train at Cataract Thursday morning, May 15, 1919, and instantly killed.

Simon Edward Michaels was born in Karthaus twnship October 31, 1859 He was the son of John Michaels. He received his education in the Common Schools of Karthaus township.

He was united in marriage with Mary E. Hunter, October 25, 1886. They went to housekeeping in Pottersdale, and they spent their entire married life there, with the exception of a year and a half, they lived in Philipsburg.

Mr. Michaels was a miner by trade, and was thoroughly industrious. He performed his part of the world's work to the best of his ability, and is now enjoying a well-earned rest in Heaven.

He was a good citizen. He was of real value to the community, where he lived and will be much missed on every side.

He was a good neighbor and friend. His character was of a high type and like his Saviour he went about doing good. The helpful life is the one that is missed,, when it passes out.

He was a faithful follower of the Meek and Lowly Jesus. It was no trouble for the world to see that he was a Christian. He was a loyal member of the Pottersdale Methodist church, and as long as he was able, he was active in the work of the church. He served acceptably as Sunday school superintendent for a number of years, and was also steward.

But he will be most missed in the home. Mr. and Mrs. Michael had had thirty-two years of beautiful married life. They were a devoted couple and lived for each other. Their home was a Christian home, and Jesus Christ was a most welcome guest there.

Mrs. Michaels has been an invalid for the last five years and her husband's devotion was intense. He took the best of care of her. It would seem that he was taken from her, just when she needed him most. Mrs. Michaels has the sympathy of the community in her affliction.

He is survived by his wife and the following brothers and sister: Walter Michaels, Youngstown, Ohio; Samuel Michaels, Karthaus; Frank Michaels, Pottersdale; Plummer Michaels, Surveyor; and Mrs. J. S. Maurer, Philipsburg.

The funeral was held Sunday morning, May 18, 1919 at ten o'clock from the Oak Hill Lutheran church. Rev. John P. McCurdy officiating. Interment in Oak Hill cemetery.

Swings .
Hall Trees.

The Art Department of Miss Cranston presents:

Landscape Design.
Posters.
Constructive Design, (Stained glass windows, doorways).
Still Life
Drawing from the Pose.
Original Landscapes.
All-over Design.
Ceramic Tea Tile Designs.
Object Drawing.
Flower Painting.
Historic Ornament.

Every patron of the school should make it a point to see these displays. Drop in and see what your boys and girls are doing at high school.

COURT NOTES.

Miller and Hartswick filed a petition in the Prothenotary's office yesterday in which Mrs. Eva Schreck seeks to secure a divorce from Al Schreck, whom she married Sept. 21, 1903. Al deserted her in 1916, and, otherwise conducted himself as no decent, up-right Cooper Township husband should. Mrs. ——— Curry is blamed with being more friendly with the recreant husband than the Pennsylvania statutes provide for or condone

Smith and Smith made a similar application for Jennie Pendleton, who seeks to be rid in fact as well as name of her former lord and master, James E. Pendleton. The Pendletons were married November 24, 1910, but the wife, who lives at Helvetia, says life with him was like the first syllable of her home town, and the agony was over when Pendelton deserted her in April, 1916.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

Mr. Rosenberger, whose home is in Punxsutawney, arrived in Curwensville yesterday and assumed the management of the Bickford Store company vice W. H. Woodside, resigned.

Chester Smith, employed at the soft clay mines had his left hand caught under a motor yesterday and three fingers were badly crushed.

Harry McNaul, of Birmingham Ala., accompanied by a friend, arrives in town yesterday. They will fish our mountain streams for a few days and thence proceed to Potter and Elk Counties, to finish their fishing excursion.

Carpenters are putting the finishing touches on the woodwork of the new porch in front of the property purchased by Orlie Norris from the Arnold estate.

S. Dorsey Griffith, a former owner of the Park house, now located at Pittsburgh, was a Curwensville visitor yesterday.

V. H. Bloom, assistant postmaster who represented Bethesda lodge 821, I. O. O. F. at the grand lodge held in Johnstown last week returned home bringing a very flattering report with him. He says it rained every day during the week, but the meetings were interesting enough to hold the delegates inside during the sessions.

Charles Eckbert a former C-boy, accompanied by his mother Mrs. H. J. Eckbert were in town yesterday. Mr. Eckbert is a druggist at Kittanning.

A game of baseball will be played on Memorial Day. After all the services are finished on athletic grounds, between the home team and the State College H. S.

On May 31st Curwensville citizens will make a drive to raise a large sum of money for the Salvation Army fund. Subscriptions to the fund will be asked for as well as liberal donations.

There has not in the world's history been so splendid a testimonial of a nation's gratitude as the United States has paid to its citizen soldiers; but it has not measured up to their deserts The last and most impressive of all tributes is that which comes from the heart bespoken by the faltering voice, the moistening eye, the quickening pulse. It is the human testimony to the fact that as a nation we have not forgot—the pledge on this privileged day of a glorious anniversary, that we will never forget—the promise that the future shall bring forth sons and daughters capable and willing to sustain with equal sacrifices the structure of human liberty and national security that these veterans raised. Looking upon the spectacle, the nation will be moved to renew its assurance that, after all, these things in this world worth fighting for, even dying for, that there are worse fates than to give one's life for a cause worthy the giving. There will be a new and resolute determination that if need shall come, as come it may, this nation will rise to its obligation and its duty, inspired by the example of the men who preserve for us the institutions tha have been made sacred by their sacrifices.

WHY IT SUCCEEDS.

Because It's For One Thing Only, and People Appreciate This.

Nothing can be good for everything.

Doing one thing well brings success.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for one thing only.

For weak or disordered kidneys.

Here is Clearfield evidence to prove their worth.

Glenn Wilson, 417 W. Front St., says: "I suffered from kidney trouble and a pain in the small of my back. My back also ached constantly. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills and after using one box I noticed the pain was not so steady and before long the pain entirely disappeared. I have never been troubled with my kidneys since and I am glad to recommend Doan's.

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Wilson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

ATTENTION P. O. S. OF A.

All members are requested to report to the hall at 1 o'clock Friday afternoon, May 30, for the purpose of participating in the Memorial Day parade M28-2tc

The ICE CREAM THAT EVERYONE LIKES

FOLKS are a heap like tobacco. Thar's hot-headed, bitey folks. Thar's flat, uninterestin' folks. An' then thar's folks like Velvet—mild, but hearty an' fren'ly, too.

Velvet Joe

Velvet

THE FRIENDLY TOBACCO

"Friendly" is a very good word to describe the positively pleasing quality that sets VELVET tobacco apart.

There is that indescribable something about VELVET that is associated in men's minds with the thought of a friend.

It is a satisfying smoke—never harsh; without a bite. Like a friend it "agrees" with you no matter how much you use it.

Long, patient ageing—in wooden hogsheads—does it. Friendship must ripen slowly. Good tobacco the same way. An army of men have learned this through VELVET.

Today is a good time to get a lot of comfort out of a pipeful of friendly VELVET.

FOUR OF A KIND

It's hard to discriminate between these four sweets. One is nearly as good as the other, but allow us to assure you that they're the finest gathering of box candies.

NORRIS
BRYN MAWR
BELLE MEAD SWEETS

What better suggestion could we make to you than that you have a box of them for the holiday, whether you're staying at home, picnicing, autoing, having company—these sweets will fit into your entertainment plan.

NEW BOUNTY LAW.

The new State bounty law, approved by Governr Sprul on Saturday, will become effective Monday. Under its provisions the bounties will be paid directly by the State Game Commission which will draw the funds from the portion of hunters' licenses set aside for that purpose and account to the Auditor General. At present the bounties are paid by first passing through the Auditor General's department and owing to pressure of business are often delayed. The bounties are often delayed. The bounties for wild cats are raised to eight dollars and for weasels to two dollars.

LUTHERANS ATTENTION

The Prayer Service announced for tonight at the Lutheran church is called off. As the rare privilege to hear Dr. Conwell seldom comes our way, and may never come again, let us all join the crowd and go to the High School. Take your offering and go to hear "Acres of Diamonds."

C. W. BAKER, Pastor.

Low Shoes In Brown's Big Sale

Now that lowshoe time is here this sale takes on added importance and especially just before the holiday.

Hundreds upon hundreds of pairs of low shoes are here and there's something for every member of the family.

Men, women, children—even the little toddlers taking their first steps can be fitted out here at a surprisingly small cost with low shoes that are at once stylish, good wearing and all that you can demand of a shoe.

Men will find oxfords that are cool, stylish and comfortable. Women will be able to secure oxfords or pumps that they'll like. Mothers will find our selections of children's shoes to their liking.

Come and outfit the family at lower cost for the holiday.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Remember that when you bring your Ford car to us for mechanical attention that you get the genuine Ford service—materials, experienced workmen and Ford factor prices. Your Ford is too useful, valuable to take chances with poor mechanics, with equally poor quality materials. Bring it to us and save both time and money. We are authorized Ford dealers, trusted by the Ford Motor Company to look after the wants of Ford owners—that's the asusrance we offer. We are getting a few Ford cars and first come first to receive delivery.
